COMPETITORS

Nearly 600 professional cowboys and cowgirls from across the United States and Canada compete for more than $120,000 at the rodeo and Xtreme Bulls.

CONTEST EVENTS

Each rodeo performance features bareback riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, team roping, barrel racing, tie-down roping and bull riding. Plus boys and girls (under 7) ride sheep in the mutton busting. July 1 is all bull riding.

SANCTIONED

By the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) which approves more than 600 rodeos across the U.S. & Canada for world championship points each year. The Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) sanctions women's barrel racing. The Mandan rodeo is part of the PRCA's & WPRA's Badlands Circuit and was named 2016 Badlands Circuit Rodeo of the Year.

LIVESTOCK

Dakota Rodeo Co., co-owned by Chad Berger of Mandan, brings proven bucking horses and bulls to challenge the riders in bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding. Bubel Timed Event Cattle LLC brings steers and calves for steer wrestling and roping.

SPECIAL FEATURES

Each rodeo performance features heart-stopping chuck wagon races, plus the comedy antics of rodeo clown Matt Tarr, the daredevil riding of Kyzer Stoddard, the Miss Rodeo Mandan pageant and a kids' stick horse race July 2 and 3. Plus the Tribute to the Six Pack Match Bronc Riding July 4.

CITYWIDE CELEBRATION

From its beginnings on July 4, 1879, Mandan Rodeo Days has grown into a four-day, citywide celebration which attracts more than 20,000 people each year. Ancillary events for the whole family include the Art in the Park Festival July 2-4, huge Independence Day parade, a road race and gigantic fireworks display following the rodeo on July 4. A full schedule is on the website.

SPONSORS AND VOLUNTEERS

Generous support from more than 100 local, area and national sponsors, plus the efforts of many volunteers, are what makes Mandan Rodeo Days possible.
